For UMTS and HSDPA connections, there is a difference between North America and most other countries in the world. North America needs PC Cards, which support 1900 MHz and EMEA needs support of 2100 MHz. Not all PC Data cards do support both bands, so please check with your PC datacard vendor which bands are supported for your PC Card.

GPRS and EDGE will work in all supported countries.

Supported USB modules for launch2net
